

HIS FEARS ESCAPE

RUSSIA HOLDS
OUTLAW
AMONG NATIONSRemains Unworthy of Recognition.

Washington, D. C., July 22.—Recognition of the Russian soviet government by the United States cannot come while its leaders continue to evince "a spirit of destruction at home and abroad," according to a declaration by Secretary Hughes, made public today.

In an exchange of correspondence with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Hughes made a statement of principle which he said was guiding the American government's policies with regard to Russia.

A Retort to Brookhart.
The letter probably was intended as an answer to Senator Brookhart (Rep., Ill.) and other members of the radical who are demanding recognition of the soviet government and who expect to start another drive in that direction when congress reconvenes.

American tradition, Mr. Hughes said, based on a desire to refrain from interference with internal affairs of other nations, might require recognition of any government, even a government of a "tyrannical minority," when the people of the nation concerned requested "acquiescence or submission" to it. Nevertheless, the government's recognition should be a recognition to "live up to the obligations of international law," and in that connection, the Russian government is not in a position to do so.

Quoting from Authentic Facts.
Mr. Gompers, remarking on "misinformation" by returning travelers about the Russian situation, said that the American concept of right and justice and democracy could be given clearly to understand that the situation of the whole situation regarding Russia is the denial of the rights of Russia to their own affairs, or in judgment on their own affairs, or in any way, or in what manner they shall be governed.

The state department's position, he said, had been understood by him to be that of "energetic opposition to a tyrannical minority imposing themselves on a reluctant people." He said he "thought that the United States should, under any circumstance, extend recognition to such a tyrannical minority as a reward."

America Gravely Disappointed.
"The refer with just emphasis to the tyrannical exercise of power by the regime," Mr. Hughes replied. The denial of control by a minority in Russia came as a grievous disappointment to American democratic thought which had enthusiastically acclaimed the end of the despotism of the czar and the entrance of free Russia into the family of democratic nations.

Only Partial Concessions.
"It is true that, under the pressure of the salutary consequences, the government group in Russia has yielded some concessions. The so-called new economic policy permitted a partial return to economic freedom. The termination of forcible requisitions of grain has induced the peasantry to endeavor to build up production once more and favorable weather conditions have contributed to increase the agricultural output."

How far the reported exports of Russian grain are justified by the present economy of the country is at least an open question. Manufacturing industry has to a great extent disappeared. The suffrage, so far as it may be exercised, continues to be limited to certain classes and even among them the votes of some categories count more than the votes of others. A new constitution has been promulgated providing in effect for the continuance of the régime of the 1917 coup d'état under a new title. The constitution, it is understood, contained on page 8, column 2.

PART II—CHAPTER XXXIX

The note was addressed in Muriel Lannard's familiar handwriting.
She had been in his mind when he entered the room. He was conscious of a restless longing to see her again. Yet, oddly enough, so strange is masculine psychology, the sight of a note from her brought a shadow of annoyance to his brow. She was being a shade too persistent. He began to feel that she was pursuing him. To use a golfing term, she was pressing.

Many a promising romance has wilted because of too evident enterprise on the lady's part. The clever girl who pursues a man, as sometimes happens, is careful that the man never suspects that he is being pursued.
Rather took up the note and sat down, gazing quizzically out of the window. He did not at once open the envelope.

He remembered the time when a note from her sent him into the seventh heaven—when he opened it with trembling hands and faster beating heart. She wasn't often kind to him, back in those days when he was drifting along with little money and fewer prospects of ever having more.

He frowned and tore open the note.
Dear Harry: Mother has developed a horrid cold and we are remaining over until tomorrow. If you have nothing better to do this evening, won't you run over for a nice old time, comfy chat? I'll not be home to anybody else. Do come.
His feeling of annoyance with her persisted. The note left him cold. He could even now think despondently of the impact of her kiss.

What was in his mind? Was she trying to warm over an old affair which had long since burnt itself out? Could she be so disloyal to her cousin, Mary Brook?

He questioned the woman and she said her husband had not been home all night. While they were talking they were joined by two other women, disheveled and crying, who claimed that their husbands were also missing. The official called the fire department. Donning gas masks, they stumbled over the bodies of three men lying in grotesque postures, one of them hanging head downward on a flight of stairs.

The rescuers then started a search of the entire building, which takes in several blocks. It is feared that other victims will be found.

THROW HUSBAND FROM SPEEDING CAR; KIDNAP WIFE
Mrs. Caroline Kusch, wife of Michael Kusch, 1323 Marquette street, was kidnapped by four men in an auto shortly before 2 o'clock, this morning, after the men had pushed Kusch out of the running board.

Mr. and Mrs. Kusch accepted a ride home with the four strangers at Clybourne avenue and Blackhawk street. At Division and Clark streets the men attempted to push Kusch out of the car. The efforts attracted the attention of Policemen Keenan and Russell, who opened fire. The police chased the auto west on Division and south on La Salle. At Chicago avenue Kusch was thrown off and slightly injured.

Woman in Plane Causes Death of Herself and Pilot
Los Angeles, Cal., July 22.—Impertinent 300 persons gathered in an oil stock promotion company's tent at Santa Fe Springs oil field, near here, an aeroplane containing William L. Cross, aerial photographer, and an unidentified woman, crashed within forty feet of the assembly this afternoon. Cross and his passenger were killed. Eyes-witnesses say Cross was 150 feet from the ground when the accident occurred. The crash was blamed on the woman, who, it appeared, seized one of the wire controls, causing the plane to go into a fatal nose dive.

PART II—CHAPTER XXXIX

Or perhaps he was doing her a great injustice. Perhaps she had no such thought in mind, and that she had in prospect only the thought of a friendly evening. He decided to see her again. Not to do so would be a confession of weakness, of doubt in his ability to withstand and resist her attractions. If he could not withstand her, now was the time to find it out, before he had married Mary Brook. He welcomed the test, for he was sure that no charm within the power of Muriel to exert could shake him.

Completely in control of himself, he dressed leisurely, smoked a cigaret, and then telephoned that he would come soon after eight. He was firmly resolved that the evening should be one of friendly companionship and that, if it threatened to lead toward the danger zone of sentiment, he would curb the tendency. If necessary he would talk of Mary Brook all evening.

In order that punctuality should not be construed as sagacious, he purposely delayed his arrival until well after half past eight.
She met him at the door. He had never seen her look so lovely. She wore a gown of clinging, filmy stuff that accentuated the graceful lines of her slender figure. Her eyes were unusually bright, and there was a heightened color in her cheeks.

The room was fragrant with the scent of many flowers, and the glaring hotel lights were dimmed with little rose colored shades which diffused a mellow, subdued glow. Through the open windows came the soft, fresh air of a lovely spring night.
As she shook his hand, she looked up at him with eyes wide open in rapt attention.

"I've a dreadful confession, Harry. Promise me you won't be scandalized. We are without a chaperon! Mother just left a few minutes ago to play bridge with some stupid old professors' wives."

It was just the setting for a nice, comfortable, old time, friendly chat.

Seven Are Retaken
in Wild Man Hunt.

(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)

PART II—CHAPTER XXXIX

Chester, Ill., July 22.—[Special.]—Thirty-eight inmates of the Illinois Hospital for the Criminal Insane stabbed their guards, broke the bars, and escaped this evening. Dr. Frank A. Stubbledick, the superintendent of the hospital, suffered a broken arm in trying to quell the outbreak. Four guards were stabbed and one convict was killed. Seven convicts were recaptured.

Tonight the neighborhood of Chester is in wild alarm. Thirty insane criminals, most of them armed with knives and clubs, are at large. They have scattered to all points of the compass, and every farmhouse, every village, and every country lane has been thrown into a frenzy of excitement.

Fear Geary Is Free.
For a time it was feared that Gene Geary, a Chicago murderer, was one of the fugitives. Later it was reported that Geary was safely held.

The convict who was killed is known only as Jackson. He, like Geary, is from Chicago. Efforts to further identify him and the others were made difficult tonight because of the extreme tension about the prison. The guards who were stabbed so that they may die are Ralph Dillay, James Denay, George Clarke, and H. S. Lamb.

Break from Bull Pen.
The break was made while the prisoners were confined in a portion of the southeastern wing of the prison known locally as the "bull pen." They were being given an airing before the usual function of locking him and the others was made difficult tonight because of the extreme tension about the prison.

Knives at Signal.
Suddenly there was a cry. This was the signal for action. Most of the prisoners drew knives from their garments. The guards, unfortunately, had become separated. Knots of convicts gathered about each other. Knives flashed. Down went the four men under a shower of blade thrusts.

At the same instant the other prisoners began battering at the bars on the windows. The prison is old. It often has been made the subject of complaint. The complaints now seem justified. For with the first blows by the insane prisoners the three-quarter inch bars began to give away.

Slits Guards Cries.
At first the guards tried to set up an alarm. They were hurriedly stifled. The crashing at the bars continued. In another moment there was a shout of triumphant triumph. The window bars had given way. The prisoners poured through to freedom.

By this time, however, the noise of the break had been heard at headquarters. Reinforcements were sent leaping to the scene. The plight of the wounded guards was instantly apparent. Guards are not permitted, under the rules, to be armed in the enclosure. Therefore, Dillay, Denney, Clarke, and Lamb were unarmed. The knives of the prisoners had cut them down without a chance for their lives.

While some of the guards sent their comrades to the hospital others scaled the walls and began an encircling movement to capture the fugitives.

San Bernardino, Cal., July 22.—The severest earthquake in the history of this city was recorded here tonight at 11:25. The damage has not been ascertained.
The city lights are out and the streets are in darkness. Walls have fallen in and chimneys thrown into the street. A pall of dust had not settled five minutes after the shock was felt.

Mrs. John R. Thompson Jr., Is Held Up
County authorities last night inaugurated a campaign against wayside highwaymen, who lurk about roadhouses and follow wealthy Chicagoans into the city to hold them up, when it was reported that Mrs. John R. Thompson Jr. and Owen D. Gilman, a broker living at the Hotel Ambassador, were held up and robbed of their money and jewelry at 2 o'clock Saturday morning as they were returning from a party at the Wayside Inn, a roadhouse on Dempster road, west of Evanston.

The robbery occurred in front of Mrs. Thompson's apartment at 315 Fullerton parkway, opposite Lincoln park. Two masked men confronted Mr. Gilman and Mrs. Thompson with revolvers, stripped them of their money and valuables and then fled in an automobile in which they had apparently followed the couple into the city.

Returning from Onwards.
Mrs. Thompson was said to have been returning from the show at Onwards club Friday evening, when she stopped with friends at the Wayside Inn to dine and dance. While there she met Mr. Gilman, who is a friend of the Thompsons. Mr. Thompson for a month has been in Germany with his father, John R. Thompson Sr., who is traveling in the hope of restoring his health.

Mr. Gilman offered to drive Mrs. Thompson to her apartment in his car. They started to the city some time after midnight.

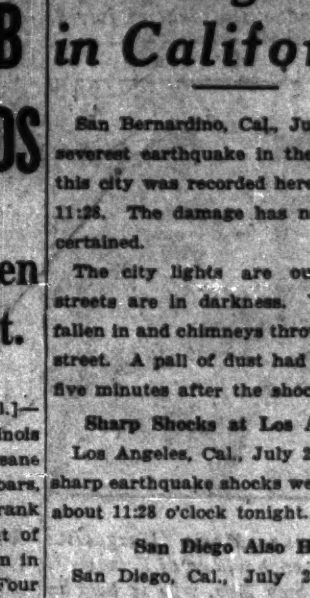

Do Not Report Robbery
Neither Mrs. Thompson nor Mr. Gilman reported the robbery to the police, but neighbors called the Hudson avenue station. Acting Captain William J. O'Brien assigned Detective Sergeants Earl Waters and James McLaughlin to the case. It was stated, however, that the detectives obtained little information from Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Gilman.

Both were reticent, it was said, because they did not wish the matter to become public. "They said it was for the same reason that they failed to make a report of the holdup."

"I didn't lose much," was all Mrs. Thompson would say.

FRANCE TO DEAL

ALONE, THREAT

(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)

PART II—CHAPTER XXXIX

PARIS, July 22.—If the lack of accord persists between France and England each country will be obliged to resume its liberty to the German government, the semi-official Temps declares editorially today.

The Temps bitterly attacks the Cuno government, saying: "The present government of Germany is holding on by a thread. Why doesn't it fall? Because it is supported by England. It has been negotiating for months with Lord Curzon."

The article ends with a plain threat of France to open separate negotiations with Germany.

(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)
PARIS, July 22.—France does not menace the economic power of any other nation, and our friends would be better inspired if they gave their attention to some nearer subject. Premier Poincaré told a huge crowd gathered at the unveiling of a war memorial at Villers Cotterets this afternoon.

The premier made a scrupulous effort to avoid saying anything which would be interpreted as comment on Great Britain's reparations letter; yet most of the speech was concerned directly with the reparations problem.

Flays Lloyd George.
Answering point by point David Lloyd George's accusations last week in the house of commons, Premier Poincaré presented a picture of France recovering from her war wounds, contrasting it to a picture of unharmed Germany victoriously building new industries and consolidating old ones. He devoted attention to German industry in an evident effort to point out that England's chief rival lies there and not in France.

"This is the moment shown by the picture of Germany, which is recovering from her war wounds, contrasting it to a picture of unharmed Germany victoriously building new industries and consolidating old ones. He devoted attention to German industry in an evident effort to point out that England's chief rival lies there and not in France."

Opposes Filing Reparations.
Premier Poincaré only direct reference to the British proposals was an attack on the idea of setting Germany's capacity to pay.

"If we commit the imprudence today of setting in a permanent frame Germany's capacity for payment, she will quickly evade us. Her vast industrial organization will gain economic supremacy over us and impose on all the world its monopolistic policy."

This industrial organization he described as one which holds a monopoly on German wealth and each day more and more dominates the government.

REVELERS JAILED IN CABARET RAID ON NORTH SIDE

Patrons of 'The Tent' Get Rides in Patrols.

Several scores of drunk to dawn revelers were thrown into a panic early yesterday morning when fifteen patrol wagons drew up and a corps of policemen, in uniform and without, invaded the sacred precincts of "The Tent," a cabaret recently opened at 1031 North State street to cater to the post-war crowd of evening gowns and dinner jackets.

The trombone and the saxophone played their wall of "Who's Sorry Now?" as the policemen pushed their way in from every door.

Women and girls shrieked in dismay and terror. Whisky bottles in various stages of fulminant were tossed and shot about on the floor. Men cursed when they found every exit barred by groups of policemen.

Landed in Patrol Wagons.

In the forty-two women and ninety men were loaded into the fifteen patrol wagons and carried to the East Chicago Avenue station. These included congees, managers, musicians, waiters, and patrons. Julius Brown, manager, and J. P. Lanigan, who looked as keepers of a disorderly house. The former stated he lives at the Hotel Sherman, the latter at the Lake Shore hotel.

All the patrons were charged with being inmates. When the patrols drew up to the police station a crowd of curious other early morning revelers gathered in the station to see what it was all about. Then came scores of bands in automobiles to pull out the detainees. Traffic in the street was blocked and a midday Madison and State street jam ensued.

Many "Browns" and "Joneses."

Almost nobody among the patrons, the police stated, gave his or her right name. Among the women, Browns and Smiths and Joneses, with a sprinkling of other common names, while a few chose the names of residents of the gold coast.

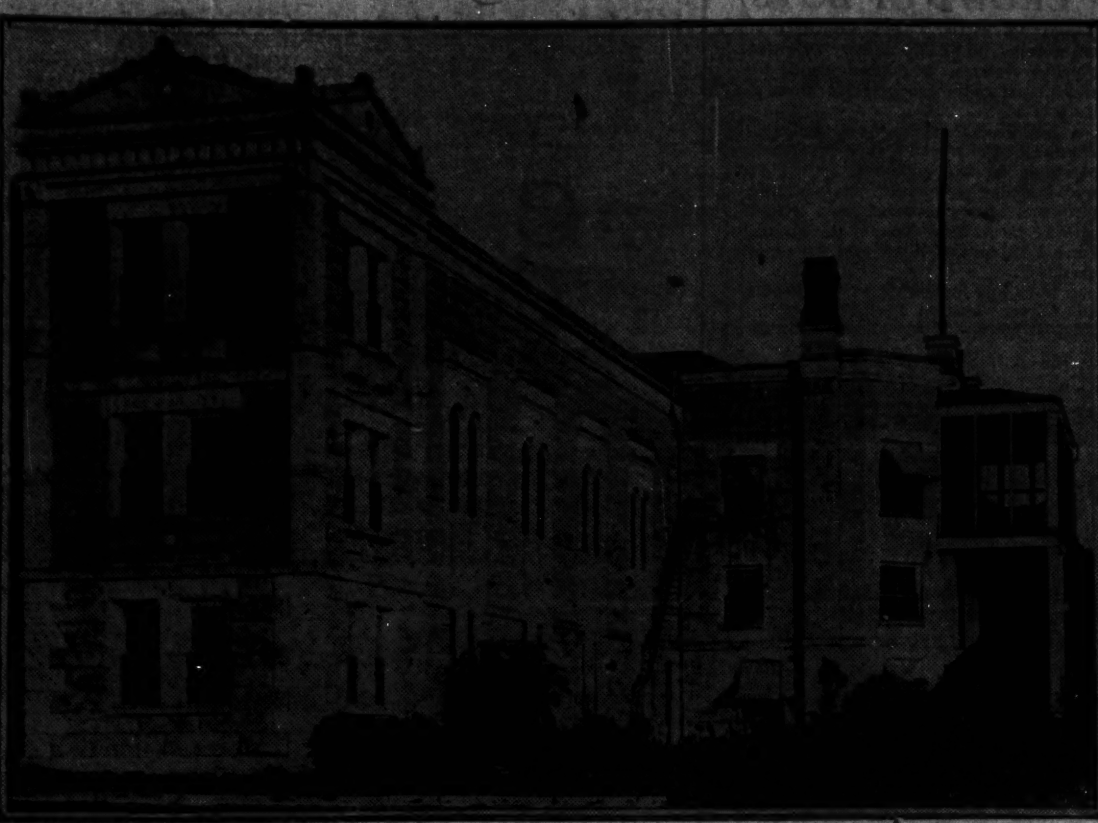

The women and girls also were of all ages and occupations. Numbers of them when asked their occupation in police routine form stated they had none, while a goodly number of others said they were actresses.

There was Marie Mullin, 40 years old, 111 Melrose street, housewife; Margaret Hanley, 18, the youngest, 5277 Ingleside avenue, no occupation; Julia Kefek, a dishwasher; Harriet Gillette, a bookkeeper; Leola Taylor, a student; Dolly Gordon, a clerk; and among the "actresses" was Moore of the Gramercy hotel and Gene Michael of the Sherbrook.

Among the men, according to the police blotter, were many clerks and salesmen, and then there were men of higher attainments. In the blotter did not list, for instance, at random from the list: David Hayes, 143 West Madison street, lawyer; Roy Sherman, Oak Forest, physician; Richard Means, 857 Windsor street, director; Rob Coffman, 1124 Paul hotel, caterer; Edward Hamilton, 511 Fullerton avenue, brewer; and Joseph Mills, 2548 Lake View avenue, manufacturer.

Finally all were released on bonds. They will be arraigned at the Chicago Avenue court this morning, and at the same time the police will present their evidence—numerous and varied used bottles and flasks of whisky, gin, and wine.

nols penitentiary, became frantic with the expectancy that escaping madmen might at any moment seek refuge in the houses of residents.

Dons were sent to patrol the Mississippi river, in the belief that some of the fugitives might have taken to the water, in the hope of swimming to the Missouri shore. All roads were covered with motorcycle policemen. Posses were hastily summoned, armed, and sent broadcast. Hardly a resident of this whole territory slept tonight, expecting at any moment to find a bloodthirsty escaped convict standing over him with brandished knife.

Forty armed guards from the southern Illinois penitentiary have been sent on the scout. Sheriff C. W. Heine of Randolph county, called out deputies and began a search in company with the local police of Chester and Menard.

Tonight there is not a home in all of Monroe, Randolph, Jackson, and Perry counties that feels free from the terror of attack by convicts. Police preparations are under way as far south as Murphysboro and as far north as St. Louis. The St. Louis and East St. Louis police have been asked to cooperate.

Warden Feared Break.

The break for liberty comes on the heels of the recent recommendation of Warden E. P. Petri that the building be condemned and a new one constructed. He pointed out that the character of the prisoners made them most difficult to control and that modern buildings and facilities were necessary to keep them in restraint without severity, that might cause charges of brutality.

The institution has been subject of many legislative investigations on complaints, usually made by inmates, of cruelty by the guards and of grafting by the officials. In the main, little has been found to substantiate the charges.

Attempts at escape have been frequent and with sufficient success to support Warden Petri's contention the old building no longer is adequate.

Police were confronted with a murder mystery yesterday when the mutilated body of a man was discovered floating in a north branch of the Chicago river near West street.

The body, nude except for a torn and blood stained shirt and a pair of socks and shoes, was removed to the county morgue, examination revealed that the head had been crushed in, apparently with a club or ax.

The body apparently had been in the water for a week or longer. The man was about 45 years old, weighed 160 pounds, and had light gray hair.

Boy Crushed to Death
by Fall of Huge Boulder

Paul Gerbac, 11 years old, of 2973 East 301st street, was killed yesterday when a large boulder fell upon him at 101st street and the Calumet river. Paul, with Paul Lulich, aged 14, was playing on a pile of boulders being used for construction purposes. One, not balanced securely, fell over, pinning the Gerbac boy beneath it and crushing the hand of his companion.

MAN AND WOMAN KILLED, 3 HURT IN AUTO CRASHES

Policeman Slain Chasing Speeding Car.

Motor accidents claimed two lives yesterday and injured three persons. County Highway Policeman Claude Bowman, 37 years old, of Bartlett, Ill., was killed instantly when his motorcycle crashed into the rear end of an automobile near Bartlett. He was traveling at a high rate of speed, chasing a speeding auto.

As he shot toward a crossroads on the edge of Bartlett, a small touring car rolled directly in his path. Bowman was hurled twenty feet by the impact.

Steering Gear Jammed.

Mrs. W. J. Maus, 25 years old, 1640 North Parkside avenue, suffered a possible skull fracture last night when he was struck by an auto as he alighted from a street car at Ashland avenue and 7th street. F. F. Rolph, 334 East Bridge street, Stroger, Ill., the driver of the car, was held by the police on a charge of assault with an automobile.

James McGrath, 4 years old, 5715 Emerald avenue, suffered a broken hip when he was run down by an auto driven by E. J. Buga, 8281 South Paulina street.

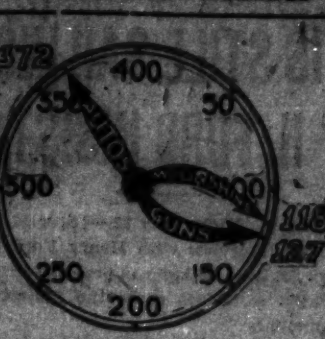

Kyle Out on Bonds.

Joseph P. Kyle, 4614 Lakes Park avenue, wealthy realtor, was released in bonds of $10,000 on a manslaughter charge yesterday following the Saturday morning crash in which Kyle's speeding auto, filled with a party of intoxicated merry-makers, struck a truck, killing one man and seriously injuring another.

Miss Ruth Haver, 22 years old, 1825 Prairie avenue, a dancer; Miss Babe Joyce, 29 years old, 2708 West Adams street, an entertainer, and Miss Clara Brumgren, 25 years old, 723 Cornelia avenue, who were riding with Kyle, whose wife is suing for divorce, will appear in South Clark street court today to answer to charges of disorderly conduct.

They were released on bonds after their injuries had been dressed and they, like Kyle, had sobered up.

William Gibbs McAdoo was a west bound visitor in Chicago yesterday, but he refused to discuss politics, past, present or future.

Concerning the PEACOCK Correct Time Service

EIGHTY-SIX years ago, Elijah Peacock, founder of what is today Chicago's oldest mercantile establishment, foresaw the requirements and responsibilities of a Watch House rendering a complete service; and he prepared for it. The result is that with the development of the watch in America, PEACOCK'S has become nationally known as the centre of accurate time-keeping—not alone for the sale of good watches, but for the proper care and repairing of them as well.

In Our Watch Repair Section are experienced watchmakers only. When you bring your watch here for attention it is received by a man who knows, and after examination will tell you what it needs, just as a surgeon or physician makes a physical diagnosis. When the work is done, it is again inspected by a master watchmaker, who fully appreciates the PEACOCK old fashioned idea of responsibility to the public.

FLIVVER BOOM FOR HENRY IN PARK FLIVVERS

Cop Does the Speaking,
Instead of Clark.

(Picture at back page.)
"I'll tell you why I am for Henry Ford for President. There is no difference in the old parties. I cast my first vote for a Republican candidate for president and later on in life I voted for a few Democrats, but I always drew a blank. If Henry Ford had been President, what do you suppose would have happened when dear old Billy Mason stood up in congress and said that Barney Baruch had cleaned up."

"Hey, you'll have to cut that out. No political speeches go in here."
The scene was Lincoln park. The first speaker was Dr. P. L. Clark, organizer of the "Ford-for-President Club of Chicago." The police that interrupted was that of Park Policeman P. Specht.

Just a Health Class.
"This is a picnic of a health club," said one of the 150 persons who had gathered around Dr. Clark.
"I don't care what it is," replied the husky enforcer of Lincoln park ordinances. "No speechmaking goes. These are orders and you've got to get it out. Go on with your picnic, but quit the speeches."
Several of Dr. Clark's women patients, who said they had been benefited by his treatment, insisted on deriving benefit from his politics, and said things about a "free country" and "the people who pay the taxes." Their remarks brought a heavy policeman bounding into the mixup. But Clark tried to answer at one time all the questions that were shot at Specht and attempted to explain just how far a picnic may go before it resolves into a political meeting or a gathering at which a park bench might become an improvised platform for public speaking.

Don't Get Smart.
"Oh, I understand," said Dr. Clark. "There is no objection to my talking, but we must not talk so anybody can hear us."
"Now don't get smart," Specht managed to say, "or I'll run you all out right now."

"Yes, sir, we will," said the reinforcing party who wanted to leave no doubt that she had some authority in the matter. Satisfied that she had enforced the anti-speaking edict to the letter and covered everybody in the last year under Dr. Clark's treatment and the lean ones who had taken on the most weight.

No Speeches to Park.
"We'll have this meeting at the clinic; you can't stop us there," shouted a woman at the departing representatives of the law.

At the office of the Lincoln park commissioner it was explained that any deviation from the anti-speech making rule would soon "ruin the park."

"Gov. Small couldn't even make a speech out here," said the clerk in charge of the office.

CONSTABULARY MEMBER SLAIN BY COLORED MAN

John Paris, 30, 11544 Front street, a member of the constabulary, was shot and killed yesterday by Sidney Simons, colored, 288 Kensington avenue. According to the police, Paris was attempting to arrest Simons when the latter shot him.

Paris and Simons had been in an altercation in front of the former's restaurant a few minutes earlier. By-standers were taunting the colored man and he resented it, witnesses said. Paris hurried into the restaurant to get his gun, but Simons started home.

Paris followed the colored man home, attempted to arrest him, and the shooting followed. Simons is being held.

THAT PEACE SHIP IS STILL SAILING, H. FORD INSISTS

Detroit, Mich., July 22.—(Special.)—In an interview with Henry Ford today the auto maker and probable presidential candidate made the following comments:

"PROHIBITION—The prohibition question is settled—absolutely settled. The eighteenth amendment is part of the constitution, isn't it? And it is there to stay. Why, prohibition is dead, in so far as it is an issue. The discussion of prohibition by politicians as an issue is a smoke screen. It conceals the big economic questions which the people have a right to hear. Politicians shy away from big questions always."

"PEACE SHIP"—The peace ship taught me what I wanted to know. I learned about war on the peace ship, especially the world war, the causes of it, the men who made it, and the conditions from which it sprang. That peace ship is sailing on. The world hasn't learned to behave itself yet without force. For a time we shall be obliged to continue our armaments, but the world will learn a better way some day. Remove the conditions that make war; that's the first thing to do.

"IRELAND"—Tell Ireland to lay down the shillalah and take up the saw. "EDUCATION"—I see no menace in the big university as such. The big buildings, the big campus, the big equipment are necessary, and some day men big enough to run such institutions will come along and run them in a very big way.

"LEAGUE OF NATIONS"—Dismissed the subject with a shrug of the shoulders. Ditto the world court; ditto the presidency, as far as his announcement that he is or will be a candidate is concerned.

COUP TO SET UP GREEK REPUBLIC NEAR, PARIS SAYS

PARIS, July 22.—Newspapers here this morning declare a republican coup d'etat in Greece will break out in the next fortnight.

Basing its assertions on telegrams from Saloniki and Crete, the Matin says Admiral Hadjikirakos is organizing the revolt, while Gen. Pangalos, recently dismissed, is agitating an uprising in western Thrace.

M. Venizelos is said to be directing the movement from Lausanne, while M. Garmoff is supplying the cash. The object of the revolt is to overthrow King George and declare a republic.

SKULL FRACTURED WHEN STONED BY CROWD OF BOYS

Louis M. Miller, 1544 South Wabash avenue, is at the county hospital suffering from a fractured skull, as a result of being stoned by several boys last night. Miller is a watchman at a building under process of construction at 510 North Dearborn street.

According to the police a group of boys was playing around the building and, when Miller ordered them away, threw rocks at him. One of the stones struck him in the head and knocked him down.

Six boys are locked up in the North Robey street station as suspects.

How Much Does It Cost to Sell Your Goods?

With overhead going up, with production capacity increasing, many manufacturers are paying a heavy penalty because they have not found the economical way to match volume production with volume sales.

It takes bitter experience to learn that it is not enough to have a good product and an adequate sales force; nor sufficient to have a good product and adequate advertising.

Our 19 years of experience in the practical application of advertising to the lowering of the cost of selling enables us to save our clients from costly experiment. For we know that, given a good product, it takes adequate selling and adequate advertising worked out as part of a definite sales policy and plan, to produce volume sales and lower selling costs.

We invite intending advertisers to make inquiry into the frank and candid methods which have made our record one of the greatest merchandising organizations in the world.

CADILLAC The Five-Passenger Sedan

Smart, compact, and capable, the Sedan may be justly described as the all-purpose car of the Cadillac enclosed group. It is large enough for the small family but at the same time has a handling ease which makes it entirely practical for professional or business use.

Having a rear trunk rack, an ample and easily controlled ventilating system, and a commodious and comfortable interior, the Sedan is as adaptable and satisfactory for the long tour as it is for city driving.

It is a car which appeals to those to whom good taste combined with usefulness, as opposed to mere novelty, are the important considerations.

NO HOPE FOR A RECONCILIATION OF BROWNING'S

New Yorker Says Wife Has "Murdered Faith."

New York, July 22.—[Special.]—There is no hope for a reconciliation between Edward W. Browning, real estate broker, and his wife, Mrs. Edward W. Browning, who is the founder of Browning's, 100 N. La Salle St., and his wife whom he has accused of divorce on charges of misconduct in Paris with Dr. C. H. Wille, New York dentist, are apparently beyond today by a statement made by the husband.

"When Mrs. Browning went aboard the Olympic June 30, and sailed to Europe with Dr. Wille as her companion, she turned her back on me and on our life together definitely and permanently," said Mr. Browning.

"I loved her deeply, so deeply that there is no limit to my faith and confidence in her. She has betrayed and murdered my faith and confidence, so that there is no possibility of reconciliation," he said.

"The 'Preferred' 'Gay Life'—The husband the gayeties of life and he found her in the dinner at the restaurant and theaters where life was at its brightest. He took her to see, in any place she wanted to go. He never had a wish that was not gratified if he knew it and it was in his power to bring it about for her.

"With this great affection and great faith, it was not hard for her to fool Mr. Browning."

WIFE TO SUIT IN PARIS
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
PARIS, July 22.—My only relation with Mrs. Browning have been to install a 'bridgework' Dr. Charles Henry Wille, New York dentist, told The Tribune this afternoon over a strictly prohibition glass of mineral water.

"His suit is astonishing from one point of view, but very unfortunate from another. The chief result, as far as I am concerned, is that it ruins my good dentistry."

Mr. Browning's alleged dentist, at last contemplated action for damages against Mr. Browning, but he intends to wait until Mrs. Browning goes through with her divorce fight. In whole at charges of misconduct, particularly the romantic elopement with a dentist.

Wife Also to Sue.
"I am the Browning family dentist," he said with a grin, "which means that as much to that family as a family member." The idea of Mrs. Browning eloping with me is foolish. Only a man anxious to find a ground for divorce would think that.

"It is true we came together on the Olympic, but that is chiefly a coincidence. I was coming here for personal reasons, and she was coming in to see a quiet divorce in Paris."

without publicity. She was accompanied by Harry Wolcher, her business agent, and many of her friends were on the boat.

Dr. Wille is amused, he says, at the fact that detectives have been on his trail in the last fortnight. He declared—with corroboration from the hotel people—that Mrs. Browning never lived at the Hotel Imperial, where he and Wolcher are living. Mrs. Browning is visiting friends just outside of Paris.

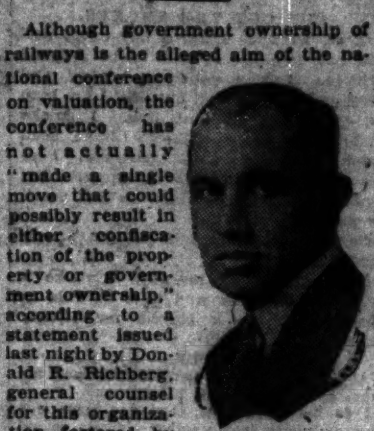

The dentist, who looks harmless enough, is not long out of college, dark haired, handsome, and extremely chivalrous.

FALL FROM WINDOW FATAL.
A fall from the second story of his home proved fatal to Edward West Browning, 70, 6801 Madison avenue, who died in the South Chicago hospital yesterday.

NEW RAILROAD ROUTING GUIDE TO OUR NATIONAL PARKS.
The Guide to Our National Parks is the title of a new booklet just published by the Chicago & North Western Ry. No one who is planning a trip to any of the Nation's playgrounds should be without a copy, free upon application to C. A. Cairns, P. O. Box 1, C. & N. W. Ry., 235 W. Jackson St., Chicago—Adv.

RAILROADS SAFE FROM HIS GROUP, RICHBERG SAYS

Confiscation Not Planned by La Follette.

DONALD E. RICHBERG.

Although government ownership of railways is the alleged aim of the national conference on valuation, the conference has not actually made a single move that could possibly result in either confiscation of the property or government ownership, according to a statement issued last night by Senator La Follette and others of similar political convictions.

Mr. Richberg's statement was in connection with a reply conference attorneys will file today to the printed argument of attorneys for the interstate commerce commission.

Thinkers Public Is Misled.
"Since the formation in Chicago on May 23 of the national conference on valuation," said Attorney Richberg, "the railway executives have been busily engaged in selling the public 'moonshine' regarding railroad values."

"The national conference has not made a single move that could possibly result in either confiscation of property or government ownership of railways. Yet it is constantly accused of having both these purposes."

"The interstate commerce commission has not ascertained the original cost of railway properties, although admitting this duty is imposed upon it in the valuation act. The commission attorneys claim the task is impossible; the conference attorneys are seeking to demonstrate it is possible to comply with the law."

Idea in Valuation.
Mr. Richberg asserted the conference does not intend the railroad value for rate making purposes is no more than $10,000,000,000, but that it does maintain "there is no proof that the investment remaining in the railroad properties equals the tentative valuation fixed by the interstate commerce commission on Jan. 1, 1920, at $18,000,000,000." He charged that the carriers want a valuation of from $30,000,000 to $35,000,000,000.

The statement, referring to "francized finance and exploitation of the public by railway financiers," said the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern are "just now engaged in completing the purchase of the Burlington without a dollar, the entire purchase price of $207,000,000 being paid by the public through excessive rates."

CLEAR SKY, WARM LAKE AND BEACH RECORD IS SET

Greatest Crowd of Year Treads Shore Line.

A cooling breeze; brilliant sunshine—not too hot; a deep blue lake—not too cold.

Under such auspicious conditions early yesterday began their pilgrimage from the far corners of the city to the lake front. By 2 p. m. Superintendent Custer, at Clarendon beach, announced that ten thousand men and women had passed through the turnstiles. And still a line of couples of blocks long impatiently awaited their turn for bathing suits.

Thousands Stroll on Beaches.
It was the same story at every beach from the Indiana line to the North Shore suburbs. Many more thousands who didn't care for a plunge strolled about the waterfront parks or motored over the driveways. The warmth of the water had risen to 72 degrees. The thermometer stood at 75.

"It is probably the banner day of the entire season," said Mr. Custer. "Last year our peak date was Sunday, June 24."

Coast Guards Save Three.
A young girl and two men were saved from drowning through alertness of the Evanston coast guard when their sailing canoe capsized a half mile from shore. The three, Miss Dorothy Carlin, 18 years old, 3234 South Kedzie avenue; Robert Carruthers, 20 years old, 3318 South Kostner avenue; and James Finlay, 15 years old, 1112 North Clark street, had set sail in the teeth of a brisk nor'easter.

When opposite the coast guard station the boys attempted to head back south, and upset their craft. The life boat arrived in time to rescue the three. Carruthers was all but exhausted in his efforts to support Miss Carlin, who was unconscious.

Unmanned by Fatalities.
Throughout the day not a fatality was recorded amongst the pleasure seekers.

At least 75,000 of the merry-makers visited the Municipal pier.

In accordance with Mayor Dever's suggestion that entertainment of "universal appeal" be provided at the pier on Sunday the Chicago band, conducted by William Well, gave a concert in the afternoon. At night there was a song-fest and a movie.

Ready to Clean Water.
Health Commissioner Burdette announced that plans are almost complete for the injection of chlorine into the lake water along the beaches to prevent possible contamination. A boat to be used in distributing the chemical is being fitted with necessary machinery.

CHICAGO GIRL DROWNED.
Grand Rapids, Mich., July 22.—[Special.]—Miss Florence Anderson, 20 years old, 1016 Albany avenue, Chicago, was drowned in Lincoln lake, north of Grand Rapids, this morning, when she waded into a hole. Her companion, Miss Margaret Jensen, 1014 Albany avenue, Chicago, narrowly escaped. The body was recovered.

STATUS OF U. S. MISSIONARIES HALTS TURK PACT

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
CONSTANTINOPLE, July 22.—[Tribune Radio.]—Owing to two conflicting points in the negotiations between the American and Turkish peace delegates at Lausanne, the American treaty will probably be signed in Constantinople, according to advice from James Paah.

No mention is made of the conflicting points, but it is believed that they cover reciprocal treatment of nationals and the status of missionaries. Certain clauses in its law prevent America from giving foreigners the right to practice medicine and law, while the United States is asking for these rights in Turkey.

Owing to a suspicion that missionaries had assisted the British during the war against Mustafa Kemal and are responsible for considerable false anti-Turkish propaganda, the American demand in this direction are considered by the Turks without enthusiasm.

American shippers are astounded at news that Italian, French and British ships are receiving a monopoly on coastwise trade. Representations have been made to Admiral Bristol demanding that America ask the same shipping rights, which are regarded as necessary to enable the United States merchant marine to hold its own in the near east.

436,994,953 in China Now; 3 Provinces Not Counted
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
SHANGHAI, July 22.—The population of China now is 436,994,953, according to figures announced by the Chinese postal department today. The announcement states that these figures do not include the districts of Mongolia, Peking, and Tibet, for which the population figures are not available.

RUSSIA MAKES BIG GRAIN DEAL WITH GERMANY

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
BERLIN, July 22.—The bolshevik slogan, "Russian grain for German tools," seemed on the road to be realized today, when it became known that a Russo-German agreement for delivery of 20,000,000 pounds of Russian grain had been signed between the official German government grain bank and the Russian trade commissioner to Berlin.

This is the first practical result of the Russo-German treaty of Rapallo, which up to now had enjoyed a theoretical life in the archives of both countries. It will give the bolsheviks a chance to prove whether or not they are able and willing to fulfill their obligations.

At the same meeting printers employed by Chicago newspapers approved a report of their wage scale committee recommending certain revisions of wages and hours. Negotiations with a committee representing the publishers now will be undertaken. A new contract also will be considered.

JOB PRINTERS ASK MORE PAY; TALK OF STRIKE

More than 2,500 job printers in Chicago, seeking a wage increase and better hours, moved toward a walkout yesterday when meeting at Common's hall, members of Typographical union, No. 16, voted overwhelmingly in favor of petitioning their executive council for strike sanction. A strike vote may then be taken.

The same meeting printers employed by Chicago newspapers approved a report of their wage scale committee recommending certain revisions of wages and hours. Negotiations with a committee representing the publishers now will be undertaken. A new contract also will be considered.

Don't Wait For Someone to Urge You

Learn now why one man tells another about Blue Boars

Your curiosity, sooner or later, will be aroused to the trying point—and you'll smoke your first pack of Blue Boars.

Why not hasten the day—commence sooner to know a new delight in cigarettes?

Don't wait to be told, "It's the triple blend."

Is fairness to yourself, sir, because otherwise you'll never know what you're missing, we ask you to smoke twenty Blue Boars.

However wedded you are to some favorite cigarette, remember that you had to discover it once, and by the same token you may discover a new favorite.

We'd like you to compare Blue Boar tobacco, TRIPLY blended, with that which is blended but once, the usual way.

Triple blending is a new discovery—a refinement of refinement. If we take the quick decision of over 500,000 men as decisive, Blue Boars are bound to take a leading position.

Nearly every man who smokes a pack of Blue Boars switches to them immediately. And one man tells another: "It's the triple blend."

EUROPEANS LOSE $50,000,000 ON 'RUSSIAN JUDAS'

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK

London, July 22.—The British government has today announced that it has received information from a source in Russia that the Russian revolutionaries have lost $50,000,000 on the sale of the plans of the mine and fortifications of Port Arthur to Japan by a Russian during the Russian-Japanese war in 1904, thus making possible the big Japanese victory.

The source on the point of being named up.

Domestic testimony in the court here during the last week has tended to prove the famous contract for $50,000,000, bearing the signature of Prince Yamagata, on which a former officer in the Russian army, Col. Tiliński, and some friends secured millions of dollars from gullible investors during the last eighteen years, is a forgery.

It is believed that the affair will prove to be the greatest swindle Europe has ever seen. The amounts obtained by Tiliński and his partners are estimated as high as $50,000,000.

British Lord Offord $6,000,000.

One witness testified that Lord Offord of England had offered $6,000,000 before the war for the contract, which was indignantly refused. Hundreds of persons in Europe are said to have lost their entire fortunes by making advances to Tiliński for financing expeditions into Russia to recover the famous document and other purposes. Tiliński claimed only to have a copy of the contract.

Capt. Schwank, an accomplice of Tiliński and a former officer in the German army, testified that he had gone to Biarritz to see Count Witte, Russian premier and one of the delegates to the Portsmouth peace conference, when Tiliński had first interested him in the affair in 1912. He asked Witte if he thought the contract might be authentic. Witte said he knew Japan had purchased some secret plans from Russian revolutionaries just before the Japanese war and the Tiliński contract might be authentic.

Schwank also affirmed that in 1915 the Japanese government paid a huge sum to the heirs of Gen. Strossel, who was supposed to have sold the Japanese general staff valuable information.

How Bankers Were Caught.

Tiliński, who was always trying to sell the contract for a big price, led one expedition of Swiss bankers to Odessa several years ago to meet a certain Theodoroff, who had been an official in the Russian foreign office, and his partner, who, it was claimed, had the original contract, but Theodoroff had mailed the document to Paris.

Tiliński then led another expedition of investors to Paris and actually received by mail from London a large envelope covered by many seals, but he refused to open the envelope. Tiliński said the only safe way to keep the document was to keep it traveling in the mails all the time, but the trouble was that he never was able to catch up with it.

The investors he had led to Paris had their appetites whetted by sight of the sealed envelope and invested heavily.

The British, Russian, and Japanese secret services also have been dragged into the case by witnesses. Schwank said he was afraid to show the contract to any one for fear that Japanese detectives would get it by some mysterious oriental trick.

Chief Plotter Exposed.

A mass of testimony has been introduced to prove the contract a forgery.

Evidence was offered to show that M. Tiliński, the missing arch plotter, had eloped to Bulgaria with the wife of Schwank, his accomplice.

The alligates who examined M. Gyguy, the Berne banker who was capitalizing a bank in Berne and another in London for M. Tiliński on the contract, reported that they had found him mentally irresponsible.

Handwriting experts testified that a letter from a Russian named Voronoff in Amsterdam—not Dr. Voronoff—who wrote M. Tiliński that he had received advance payment of 40,000,000 yen ($55,000,000), was a forgery.

Herr Schumann, former impresario for Sarah Bernhardt and who wears the Legion of Honor, testified that he was certain that Prince Yamagata's signature on the contract had been copied from a portrait of Prince Yamagata which Herr Schwank's wife had stolen from his apartment in Paris.

"I see M. Tiliński has been swindled by the crazy Swiss banker, Gyguy, but I am convinced that the contract is as good as gold," insisted Herr Schwank in his defense.

No decision of the court can convince us that Prince Yamagata's contract is not authentic," testified James Sawyer, an English witness, who helped organize an English syndicate to take over the claim against Japan and who took a party of London financiers to Tokio in 1918 to discuss the business with the Japanese foreign office.

Fascinating Tendencies of Coming Styles Are Expressed By The Newest Hats

THESE are the days when the newest Hats are being unwrapped in our French and Debutante Salons, and many an eager glimpse discovers the promise of the coming mode. Shades of brown are heralded by early models. Many of the loveliest models in this collection are of satin combined with another fabric such as velvet or hatter's plush, and finished with the graceful, inimitable line of a feather. Some have brims of hatter's plush with a burnt goose feather adding chic to the close-fitting shape; while others use velvet for the underbrim and a severe quill. All the Hats in this group are of exclusive design and exquisite workmanship.

A special purchase of French Hats is on display in these Sections today at very moderate prices for advanced modes.

HARDING PARTY MAY QUIT SEA TO VISIT IN CHICAGO

Illness of First Lady Seen as Reason.

BY GRAFTON WILCOX.

Sitka, Alaska, July 22.—(Special.) President Harding is reported to be considering the prospect of changing his tour and abandoning the trip to Panama and Porto Rico. No decision has been made yet, but the motive underlying the possible alteration is Mr. Harding.

After her rest in Fairbanks and since her return to the ship she is now about the boat again, participating in activities, but the doctors are apparently over a further long rest trip. The first lady is not a good sailor, and the medical advisers fear that the trade winds of the Caribbean are almost certain to stir up a tempest. Winds and seas on the Alaskan trip have been calm and pleasant, but Mr. Harding is somewhat disturbed physically. No trouble is feared as far as Panama, but there is no alternative return from Panama except by the Caribbean.

No definite decision in the matter is expected until the presidential party reaches California. If it is decided to return overland, the President may go by way of Chicago, and perhaps add a few speeches to his program. The President is expected to discuss Alaska problems to some extent in his speech at Seattle Friday.

The executive and his party enjoyed today here in the picturesque old capital of Alaska a gem of a village in a nook surrounded by green mountains, behind which tower snow peaks, and in the foreground are hundreds of green little islands that suggest the St. Lawrence.

The two weeks' trip of President Harding and party was ended late today when they steamed from Sitka on the transport Henderson for Vancouver, B. C., and Seattle, Wash.

PRINCESS GOES TO TRIAL AS DUPE OF ARCH-LOTTER

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

BERLIN, July 22.—Princess Margaret Hohenzollern, who will appear in Germany's Supreme court tomorrow to stand trial for granting asylum and protection to the monarchist plotter, Capt. Ehrhardt, and committing perjury for his sake, was allowed to appear yesterday before the prosecuting attorney for the first time without a band covering her eyes. Her eyes had always been blindfolded when taken before the judges. She also was allowed to wear her own clothing and choose her own food. Reports state that her defense will be a touching picture of the tragic romance of a princess, who believed the ardent declarations of the "heroic adventurer," who neglected to tell her he already was married. When the death of Capt. Ehrhardt's status became known last November, the princess' brother challenged the adventurer to a duel. Even the Socialist papers take up the cause of the duped princess as Capt. Ehrhardt's victim.

NO RECOGNITION, SAYS HUGHES OF OUTLAW RUSSIA

tains no bill of rights, and the civil liberties of the people remain insecure.

America Craves Friendship.

"We learn of the hope of America that Russia should have the opportunity of free political expression and that she should be enabled to resume her economic life and regain prosperity and once more to take her place among the nations on the basis of mutual helpfulness and respect. There can be no question of the sincere friendliness of the American people toward the Russian people. And there is for this very reason a strong desire that nothing should be done to place the seal of approval on the tyrannical measures that have been adopted in Russia or to take any action which might retard the gradual reassertion of the Russian people of their right to live in freedom.

"We have had recent evidence that the policy of confiscation is by no means at an end. The effective jurisdiction of Moscow was recently extended to Vladivostok, and soon thereafter Moscow directed the carrying out in that city of discriminatory measures such as we saw in western Russia during 1917 and 1918.

World Revolution Still Sought.

"What is most serious is that there is conclusive evidence that those in control at Moscow have not given up their original purpose of destroying existing governments wherever they can do so throughout the world. Their efforts in this direction have recently been lessened in intensity only by the reduction of the cash resources at their disposal.

"Trotzky, addressing the fifth congress of the Russian Communist Youth at Moscow only last October, said this: 'That means, comrades, that revolution is coming in Europe, as well as in America, systematically, step by step, stubbornly and with gnashing of teeth in both camps. It will be long protracted, cruel, and sanguinary.'

"The only suggestion that I have seen in answer to this portrayal of a fixed policy is that these statements express the views of the individuals in control of the Moscow régime rather than of the régime itself. We are unable, however, to find any reason for separating the régime and its purpose from those who animate it, and control it, and direct it, so as to further their aims.

Makes Recognition Impossible.

"While this spirit of destruction at home and abroad remains unaltered the question of recognition by our government of the authorities at Moscow cannot be determined by mere economic considerations or by the establishment in some degree of a more prosperous condition, which, of course, we should be glad to note, or simply by a consideration of the probable stability of the régime in question.

"There cannot be intercourse among nations any more than among individuals except upon a general assumption of good faith. We would welcome convincing evidence of a desire of the Russian authorities to observe the fundamental conditions of international intercourse and the abandonment by them of the persistent attempts to subvert the institutions of democracy as maintained in this country and in others.

U. S. Public Opposes It.

"It may confidently be added that respect by the Moscow régime for the liberties of other peoples will most likely be accompanied by appropriate respect for the essential rights and liberties of the Russian people themselves. The sentiment of our people is not deemed to be favorable to the acceptance into political fellowship of this régime so long as it denies the essential bases of intercourse and cherishes, as an ultimate and definite aim, the destruction of the free institutions which we have laboriously built up, containing, as they do, the necessary assurances of the freedom of labor upon which our prosperity must depend."

MARY DEARLOVE, 35 YEARS DOCTOR, IS BURIED TODAY

Mrs. Mary A. Dearlove, M. D., of Oak Park, one of the first women physicians to practice in Chicago, will be buried today from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mabel D. Sundell, of 443 Ontario street, Oak Park. Mrs. Dearlove died last Friday as a result of injuries received when she fell from a chair in her home five weeks ago. Until that time she had been in active medical work, having practiced here for thirty-five years.

She came to Chicago from Illinois, N. Y. in 1885, and seven years later was married to George A. Dearlove of Northfield, Ill., one of the pioneers of Cook county, who came to Northfield in 1854. Mrs. Dearlove took up the study of medicine after her marriage and was graduated from Bennett Eccles college in 1893. She was on the staff of the women's hospital at the World's Fair in 1893.

She is survived by three children: Mrs. Sundell and Richard T. Dearlove of Oak Park, and George N. Dearlove of Chicago. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. George N. Lucanich, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Oak Park.

Rev. T. C. Warrington, 70,
Minister 40 Years, Dies

The Rev. Thomas C. Warrington, 70 years old, for more than forty years a member of the Rock River conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, died yesterday at Wesley Memorial hospital, just one day after the first anniversary of the death of his wife, also a church leader. Funeral services will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gilson of 158 Woodland avenue, Wilmette, at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Warrington's father was a minister. Two of his brothers, Frank M. and L. P. Warrington, are ministers and one daughter, Mrs. Isabelle W. Hoag, is the wife of a minister.

MRS. SARAH TOBIAS, a pioneer of Will county, will be buried tomorrow from her daughter's home at Footnote, Ill. Mrs. Tobias was 88 years old and came to Will county from Wales in 1868.

EVERY CITIZEN MAY ENTER BOK PEACE CONTEST

New York, July 22.—The conditions under which plans for the $100,000 American peace award, created by Edward W. Bok, must be submitted were made public by the committee in charge today.

These define the scope of the plan sought as one "that must provide a practicable means whereby the United States can take its place and do its share toward preserving world peace, while not making compulsory the participation of the United States in European war if any such are, in the future, found unpreventable. The plan may be based upon the present covenant of the league of nations or may be entirely apart from that instrument.

Open to All U. S. Citizens.

Competition is open to every United States citizen, whether by birth or naturalization, and plans may be submitted not only by individuals but also by organizations, national, state or local. Only one plan may be submitted by any one contestant. Manuscripts, which must be typewritten, must be accompanied by a summary of not more than 500 words, while the paper, itself, must not be over 5,000 words.

Manuscripts must not bear the author's name or any identifying sign, but must have attached a plain sealed envelope containing the author's name and address. These will be given numbers corresponding to a number to be given each manuscript and will be opened after the jury of award has made its selection.

All plans must be received at the offices of the American Peace Award in New York by midnight of Nov. 15, 1923. The names of the jury of award will be announced about Sept. 1, next.

May Select Composite Plan.

The committee announced that it is possible the jury of award may select a plan which is a composite of the best plan and of sections and ideas taken from each of several other plans. In that event, a second, third, fourth and fifth award of $5,000 each will be made in addition to the principal one of $100,000.

The formal conditions reiterate that the main award is to be made in two payments, $50,000 to be paid upon announcement of the selection by the jury of award and the other $50,000 when and if the plan is approved by the United States senate or upon demonstration of an adequate degree of popular support.

Contestants may obtain a copy of the conditions at the organization's headquarters after Wednesday of this week.

GIRL BLOTS PAST, THEN KILLS SELF ON COUNTRY ROAD

Milwaukee, Wis., July 22.—Forty-eight hours after she consumed the contents of a bottle of poison and collapsed by the side of the Grandville road, near the county limits, the identity of the mystery girl, clad in knickerbockers, who was pronounced dead on reaching the county hospital, continued to puzzle authorities.

Attempts to trace the girl's movements disclosed that she had been spending a few days in Milwaukee, had been seen at Waukegan, near here, and had given both Le Crosse and Fond du Lac as her home.

Evidence that the girl had led a healthy normal life complicated the theories on which the officials had been working. The post mortem examination appeared to set at rest any possibility of her having been of the so-called "vamp" type.

The belief is entertained by some that she may be the daughter of a well-to-do family in the state—a girl who started out to make her own way and became discouraged. The possibility of a love affair also is strongly hinted.

HOUSE SHORTAGE IN PARIS CAUSES HOUSE STEALING

PARIS, July 22.—(United News.)—Houses are so scarce in Paris that an organized band of thieves is stealing homes right off the foundations and apparently selling them to home-seekers in other parts of the city.

Here is the latest case reported to the prefecture of police Sunday: M. Molivert, a resident of Saint-Quen, near Paris, bought a lot in Rue Pleyel and built a small frame house on it. Before taking possession he made a trip to the country and when he returned the house was gone.

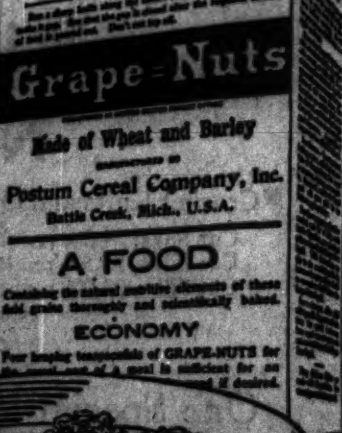

The most widely read journalist says—

"Mental work after a heavy meal, forcing into the brain, by thinking, blood that the stomach needs for digestion, ends prematurely at least half of our business men."

"ANY MAN PAST FORTY that eats meat in the middle of the day or any hearty meal is inviting trouble."

Call Home by
"Long Distance"

THE Illinois Bell Telephone Company maintains 725 booths in 50 different locations in the state at which are pay-station attendants. The booths are located mostly in hotels and railway stations.

The duty of the attendants is to assist patrons in obtaining local and long distance connections. They are prepared to give all needed information.

When you are traveling and the evening seems likely to be dull and lonely, call up your home from the hotel pay station. If you are reasonably sure some one will be at home, make a "station-to-station" call, which will cost about 20 per cent less. After 8:30 P. M. the rate on "station-to-station" calls is still further reduced.

Thousands of travelers enjoy these talks home every night.

If there is no attended pay station handy, call from any telephone.

DODGERS AND BRAVES DIVIDE DOUBLE HEADER

Brooklyn, N. Y., July 22.—Boston and Brooklyn divided a double header today, Marquard pitching the Braves to a 14 to 0 victory in the first, while the Dodgers captured the second, 7 to 5.

Dickman gained his first victory in nine starts for Brooklyn in the second contest, which was also featured by seven double plays.

Defensively, the entire Glendon brigade had a hand in the throttling of the Chancemen for the fifth time in the seven game set. Leverett was a fairly good hurler all the way, but his support played a big part in his success. Kamm alone making three great atouts and throws on a batter—Molish.

Leverett was tricked for only seven hits and gave up two runs, but it so happened that the free transportation was granted in the one round in which the invaders were able to unwork more than a solitary out. That was the fourth, when their runs scored. Leverett gave the game to Flanagan with none dead. Burns died, but Reddie singled and Harris forced Flanagan at third. Shanks hit safely to send Reddie home and Harris tallied on a double steal with Shanks.

15,000 Sox Game.
The Sox first inning was a heart breaker for the 15,000 present. Hooper speared off a hit for a starter, and after McClellan had fled out the wild Mr. Shanks pummeled both Collins and Mostil. Shanks carried home both Shanks' glove to send Hooper home, but Falk and Kamm popped out. A pass, a hit, and a hit batter loaded 'em up again in the third with one. Arlin Falk and Kamm popped out.

In the next two innings it was just downright bad luck, and not Mr. Shanks, that kept the Sox from making progress. In the fourth, with runners on third and first with two out, Collins slammed a hard bouncer directly over first base and Burns stabbed it with one hand. In the next frame Mostil walked and went to second on a wild pitch. With Burns running in for an anticipated bunt, Shanks crossed him and hit a wicked line toward right, but Pittner flagged it and Mostil was doubled off second.

Pumable Starts Seventh.
The seventh, that proved so noisy, started with Shanks fumbling McClellan's grounder. Then the luck changed. Collins sacrificed and Mostil walked. Shanks doubled to right, putting McClellan home and Mostil on third. Falk was purposely passed to make a double play possible, and Kamm upset the strategy by bunting a clean single to left. Mostil and Shanks counting and Falk going to third. The batter carried home the last run of the inning on a scratch hit by Shanks.

The eighth was even noisier than the seventh. It started with a pass to Collins, who went to third on a hit by Mostil. The latter stole second and Shanks moved both across with a single. Kamm followed with a double that sent Shanks home. While advanced on a wild pitch and scored the last run on a hit by Leverett.

BAN ON PLAYERS HALTS CUBS' EXHIBITION GAME

BY FRANK SCHREIBER.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 22.—(Special.)—Willie Killefer and his dashing Cuba escaped the terms of an exhibition game today. Scheduled to put on a show with a local team at Tamaqua, Pa., a coal mining city about 100 miles from Philadelphia, it was discovered early this morning that the Tamaqua team was harboring five players who are said to be under the ban of organized baseball.

Manager Killefer and Secretary John Seys spent the greater part of the early morning investigating the status of the men listed as Tamaqua players, and found five of them were playing under assumed names.

Several on Blacklist.
The five were said to be Garner, suspended by Brooklyn, where he gained the name of the "wild man from Borneo," pitching under the name of Jordan; Manchester, catcher, under name of Chester; Burke, second baseman, listed as Kelley; Dameron, first baseman, listed as Nedon, and Miller, third base, whose lineup name was Harvey.

The upstate club also had closed with the management of the Philadelphia Nationals for a game Aug. 18. This contest will be canceled by the Philadelphia Nationals, who are playing with the Yankees and Brooklyn undoubtedly will go the same way.

Discovery of the ineligible was most fortunate for the rules of organized ball are strict on playing against ineligible.

Open with Flanagan Today.
The Cubs laid over today and tonight will depart for Pittsburgh for games with the Pirates tomorrow and Tuesday. The Bears return to Chicago on Wednesday and have a game Thursday, opening with the Giants Thursday.

Grover Alexander will get the fling assignment tomorrow.

THIS UMPIRE SHOULD BE CAREFUL; IT MIGHT BE MONEY NEXT TIME

SALENA, Ind., July 22.—A most unusual baseball play took place in the fifth inning of today's Southwestern league game here, which Salena won from Independence, 4 to 0.

When Dunn, Salina catcher, attempted to put out Hagin, Independence baserunner, who was coming from third after a wild pitch, he saw two balls rolling on foul ground. One was the ball in play, which he had allowed up; the other had fallen from Umpire Dodson's pocket without any one's knowledge.

In plain view of the grandstand Dunn happened to pick up the ball Dodson had dropped and tagged Hagin. To settle the dispute, the umpire sent Ragin back to third. Both managers protested.

FARMER'S TABLE SUPPLIED WITH FOOD FROM TOWN

Specialized Wheat Growing One Cause.

BY ARTHUR EVANS

Edge City, Kas., July 22.—[Special.]—Night in the heart of the old "cow country" farmers' dinner to town to buy their beefsteak. Many of them rely on the village market for bacon, milk, poultry, and eggs.

It is no unusual sight to see them buying corn and tomatoes in cans while an for milk, one wholesale grocery company has estimated that in the Arkansas valley between Hutchinson and Pueblo, Colo., at least 100,000 gallons of condensed milk is used a year, the farmer being the chief buyer.

Many a man with a fifty-foot lot in a tenant farm is making more than a tenant farming "200" acres simply by selling the garden truck he raises in his back yard to the grocer, who in turn sells it to the farmer.

That's what comes of specialized wheat raising, which the growers themselves say is a "lazy man's farming" and an agricultural vice. In western Kansas exclusive wheat growing is the general practice.

"Diversified Farming the Need."

This year the crop in this region is light and the grower is selling wheat for 75 to 80 cents a bushel which, he says, costs him 60 cents to $1 to produce without counting in his labor. Income counties this is the third season of light crops or failures, and one hears farmers everywhere saying that the only road to salvation is through diversified farm products.

Scattered with eastern Kansas—the "corn belt"—western Kansas is as much a wheat belt as the east. Out here they grow nothing but wheat. Many of them have fields so large that the grain is not harvested. Many of them are up to their ears in debt.

Yet there are indications that even in the wheat belt wealth is on the wane. It has been on the increase since the year 1919 and the subsequent slump. Every banker reports extensive liquidation of credits.

Getting Home Credits.

Much of this has been refinancing at lower rates, but the significant thing is that most of the local credit needs are being met locally. Successful farmers are lending to the less successful—all the bankers comment on this. Some of that easy dough of the peak period must have stuck somewhere, so it seems.

A prodigious amount of retrenchment has taken place. In the hiring of labor for harvest, several banks which before usually had requests for loans amounting to $100,000 to $150,000, report this year there has been less than one-fifth of that. The farmers have been working harder and longer and hiring fewer men.

TARIFF BODY TO HEAR PLEA FOR HIGHER DUTIES

Washington, D. C., July 22.—[Special.]—The tariff commission will hold its second public hearing this week in an investigation under the flexible provision of the tariff law. A hearing on an application for an increase in duties on wall pockets is set for Tuesday. Like the hearing on paint brushes, handles, which took place last Tuesday, the interest in the proceeding will be not on account of the commodity involved, but because of questions incident to the operation of the new tariff.

While the application in the case of paint brush handles was for a decrease in duty, the petitioners in the case of wall pockets, manufacturers of lithographic articles, desire increased protection against Germany.

While a number of hearings will be held before the commission on various commodities during the next few weeks, there will be none of wide interest before the sugar investigation is reached. It is likely that the hearing on sugar duties will be held in October or November. The field investigation still are in progress in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and in the United States.

LONGS 800 TO FIVEHUNDRED.

It is also noted that he had missed $60 shortly after two men had broken against him in a crowded street on Saturday night.

ANTI-SALOONISTS MAY OUST THEIR INDICTED CHIEF

New York, July 22.—[Special.]—Despite the statements of directors of the Anti-Saloon league friendly to William H. Anderson to the effect that he would be supported in his coming trial on charges of grand larceny and forgery, information has leaked out of the prohibition organization that a serious disaffection has arisen.

At the next meeting of the league, to be called this week, it is learned that a demand that Anderson withdraw will be made. Failing in this the supporters of the league who are opposed to Anderson will fight any move to have the league pay the indicted superintendent's legal expenses.

To add to the Anti-Saloon league's troubles, it is learned upon reliable authority that members of the Baptist faith, the second largest in numbers in the state, are standing with Raymond B. Fossick and John D. Rockefeller Jr. in their opposition to Anderson's methods.

Episcopals are lukewarm toward the "dry" leader, and members of other Protestant denominations are not overfriendly.

Cake Which Poisoned Nine

Proved Pure by Analyses

Samples of cake alleged to have poisoned nine people last week failed to show any traces of poison when analyzed by the Chicago Health department. The cake was supposed to have been purchased from Frederick Johansen, a baker at 2118 South Halsted street. Two other analyses were made, one by the Master Bakers' association and one by a chemical concern. Joyed by the baker. They both showed the cake to be pure.

Manufacturers Choose The Cleveland Plain Dealer Alone Because They Know Northern Ohio

IN New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and every other important manufacturing center of the United States there are 537 national advertisers who have chosen the Plain Dealer alone during the first five months of 1923. This, they claim is their greatest sales help in Cleveland and the Northern Ohio Market.

The few who are listed here are typical of the wide variety of products that are making this concentrated appeal to the needs and tastes of every type of person. Your own city is conspicuous as a leader.

They Demand Unusual Coverage

What these keen merchandisers have sought and found is what every careful merchandiser demands—the unusual coverage of a single newspaper big enough to do a 100% job. Economy is an important consideration but that comes naturally in their choice of the Plain Dealer.

From Boston to San Francisco these thrifty merchandisers have analyzed this highly responsive Northern Ohio Market. No single town, or no small group of jobbers or retailers, has determined their choice of Cleveland newspapers. Wherever these men conducted their investigations; wherever consumer advertising was needed to support dealer distribution, the results were always the same. They have led to the choice of the Plain Dealer alone with its unusual coverage.

1,579 Advertisers Reach Same Decision

In all of 1922 there were 1,042 national advertisers who chose the Plain Dealer alone. These, together with the 537 who acted identically during the first five months of this year, make a great total of nearly 1,600 careful buyers of newspaper advertising.

The most significant thing about this universal choice of a single newspaper is that it is not limited to any one type or price of merchandise. Everything from tooth brushes to typewriters is included. Those that appeal to women are as wide in their scope as the things that interest men. For the Plain Dealer is a great family newspaper.

In fact, 91.9% of the Plain Dealer's home delivered circulation in Cleveland stays in the home all day.

More Than 50% of All National Advertising Appears in The Plain Dealer

No big national advertiser ever thinks of coming into this rich Northern Ohio Market without using the Plain Dealer. This is why this one good home newspaper alone carried more than half of all of the national advertising published by Cleveland newspapers during 1922.

The national advertiser who plans his advertising as carefully and thoughtfully as he puts quality into his merchandise can reach no other decision than to choose the Plain Dealer. During July the daily circulation of the Plain Dealer is running more than 200,000 and the distribution of the Sunday issue exceeds 230,000.

This is why the Plain Dealer is Cleveland's Greatest Salesman of ANY Priced Merchandise.
